The Arkansas State Lady Red Wolves are proud to welcome Taylor Schlopy to Jonesboro. Taylor currently plays for the Akron Racers of the National Professional Fastpitch Softball League. In 2009 she was a member the USA Softball Team, and most recently played for the University of Georgia, graduating in 2011 with many honors.

In Jonesboro, opportunities to participate in a “taylormade” softball camp could be considered a once in a lifetime event! Taylor will be offering two camps divided by age at the Southside Softball Complex on February 25th. The camp is limited in size and those interested need to sign up immediately. The clinic will be geared to those wanting to improve their slapping, bunting and base running skills.

On February 24th, 2011 The Lady Red Wolves Softball Club will be hosting a banquet at the Arkansas State University's Cooper Alumni Center. The guest speaker will be Taylor Schlopy. Tickets for this event can be purchased at the Jonesboro Regional Chamber of Commerce. The ticket cost is $40 and can be paid for in the form of cash or check. No debit/credit cards please.

Taylor currently plays for the Akron Racers of the National Professional Fastpitch Softball League. In 2009 she was a member the USA Softball team, and graduating from the University of Georgia in 2011.

The banquet will be a wholesome time for the entire family and/or those interested in learning more about the new Lady Red Wolves Softball program. Let Taylor share her unique story that will show you and your daughter how her own ambitions of playing college ball can one day come true.
