Rawlings Signs On for Four More Years

Pittsburgh, PA – The leagues of CollClubSports are excited to announce that Rawlings Sporting Goods will continue on as a company sponsor through the year 2018.

Rawlings has extended its partnership as “The Official Uniform Supplier of CollClubSports” for four more years, and will continue to offer member teams high-quality uniforms, equipment and apparel at a discounted price. When teams order with Rawlings, they’ll receive up to 40% off of catalog pricing.

As of 2014, Rawlings Sporting Goods has been faithfully supporting the leagues of CollClubSports for nine consecutive years. In addition to serving as “The Official Uniform Supplier of CollClubSports” Rawlings also provides the R1NCBA Baseball, which is the “The Official Baseball of the NCBA”.

Additionally, Rawlings offers all NCBA and NCFA member teams the chance to purchase “The Official Uniform of the NCBA or NCFA”. Rawlings will include the official NCBA Jersey Patch on the back neck of all jerseys, coats, and jackets sold to club baseball teams, and the NCFA Jersey Patch on the front of all apparel sold to club football teams. They will also feature the official NCBA or NCFA Pants Patch above the right rear pocket of all team uniform pants.

Rawlings will also serve as the Presenting Sponsor of the NCFA Championship Bowl Game in 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017, and partner as an Official Sponsor of the NCSA World Series in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

“CollClubSports does an outstanding job of enhancing the educational experience of students by providing additional leadership and character building opportunities that would not be possible without their guidance,” said Mike Thompson, Senior Vice President of Marketing for Rawlings. “Rawlings is passionate about partnering with such a strong governing body to continue to give players an opportunity to take their education and game to the next level.”

CollClubSports Sponsor Account Manager Eric Curitore has been working with Rawlings for the past three years, and has nothing but good things to say about their service or their product.

“We’re incredibly excited to continue building our relationship with Rawlings Sporting Goods,” said Curitore. “They have done nothing but provide high-quality uniforms to all of our leagues and teams at extremely cost-effective prices. We’re very fortunate to keep them on-board so we can continue that trend!”
