JMU Dukes Repeat as NCSA Champs

After a rainy start and then two gorgeous days of Georgia sun, James Madison University defeated Clemson University by a score of 9-7 to defend their national title and repeat as 2016 NCSA National Champions. The Dukes went undefeated in both the national championship pool play and elimination rounds. With an impressive World Series run, the 2016 Championship title game marks the first in the history for the Clemson Club Softball program, falling short in a thrilling final game. The Dukes finished the weekend 8-0 and took home the trophy! JMU junior, Cameron Hall, took home the World Series MVP for her outstanding performance at the plate and in the outfield for the Dukes. Thanks to all 16 of our teams for participating in this season's World Series Tournament. We hope you had just as much fun as we did. See you all in Columbus next year!

NCSA CORTS then LANDS a new Director of Team Development Meet: Tracy Reardon

Tracy has been around a softball diamond for as long as she can remember. Born and raised on Long Island, she started playing Little League at the age of five. This sparked an excitement and passion for elite competition, like the kind on display during Williamsport summer leagues through the NCSA. Those formative experiences, in which a love for being part of team was fostered, is why she chose to pursue a BS degree in Sport Management at SUNY Cortland. On top of being a student, Tracy was a Resident Assistant and also joined the Cortland Softball Club. Tracy was recently hired by CollClubSports to be the Director of Team Development, Assistant Director of Spring Training Operation and the Fundraising Sponsor Account Manager for the NCSA. She is excited to have the opportunity to channel her passion and expertise from her previous experiences into assisting teams and programs for the NCSA, and looks forward to growing with the organization.

Mocs Claim DII Crown

The 2016 DII World Series was culminated by one of the most exciting Championship games in recent years. While UT-Chattanooga (UTC) ultimately took home the title for the 1st time in their program's history, the remaining 7 teams proved they were indeed among the 8 best teams amongst the 151 teams Division II had in 2016. Jaycee Ballpark in Pittsburg, Kansas returned as the host site for the 2016 DII World Series after a successful 2015 event. The event featured only 2 returning teams from the 2015 event - Penn State & Saint Louis (SLU). The other 6 teams made the trip to Pittsburg for the 1st time – San Diego, Maryland, Windsor, Texas A&M CoC & Slippery Rock.

The entire week saw close exciting games & numerous upsets. #7 seeded San Diego, an at large team into their District Playoff, came 1 game short of the Championship after upsetting #2 seeded Texas A&M CoC twice & played SLU & UTC incredibly tough in both of its losses. #5 seed Maryland took down Canada's own #4 seed Windsor in their first round game. #1 seeded Penn State went 0-2, with their 1st round loss coming from #8 seeded SLU & their 2nd round loss to Windsor. Jeremy Gonzalez of UTC threw the 2nd no hitter in NCBA World Series history in UTC's semi final victory over Windsor.

The Championship game featured #3 seed UTC & #8 seeded SLU. Both teams went 3-0 respectively to clinch a spot in the title game. Christian Bednar (SLU) & Ty Tucker (UTC) were both fantastic on the mound. SLU tied the game at 2 in the 6th only to see UTC's Janson Roberson hit a walk off single in the 8th to score Jeremy Gonzalez, giving the Moc's the 2016 DII World Series title. Ty Tucker took home the MVP award after throwing 15 innings through 2 starts (2 complete games – including the Championship) yielding only 3 ER on 16 hits, 1 BB & 17 K's. He also went 5-12 w/ 1 double, 1 steal, 3 runs scored & 4 RBI from the plate.

Alex grew up in Oxford Ohio, where he has lived most of his life. He has a passion for sports that began at an early age. He has been playing baseball since he was 8 years old. Although baseball is his true passion, Alex was an avid sports player in high school, playing on four different teams throughout his high school career. Upon graduating, Alex attended Bowling Green State University where he would go on to play club baseball for three seasons as a second basemen and relief pitcher. He graduated from BGSU with a degree in Sport Management, with a minor in Business. Alex is very excited about joining the CollClubSports family.

"Playing club baseball at BGSU was one of the most exciting times of my life. The friendships and bonds I created are something that will last a lifetime. I am very pleased to be part of the CollClubSports team as NCBA Director of New Team Development. I am very excited to help teams become a part of the NCBA and watch as they too create friendships and bonds amongst themselves, as I did with my team at BGSU."

Nevada stakes claim on 1st NCBA Title

The University of Nevada-Reno took home the programs first National Championship title in its first ever appearance in the 2016 NCBA World Series at Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Kentucky. The Wolfpack defeated East Carolina 7-4 in a very exciting game that had the Wolfpack down to its final six outs before making a huge rally in the top of the 8th. Nevada down 4-2 put four runs up on the board in the top half of the 8th and never looked back adding another run in the 9th to defeat the Pirates from ECU and win the 2016 NCBA National Championship. While the entire Wolfpack team played brilliantly all tournament, Cameron Cole took home the MVP honors for both his pitching and his batting. On the mound, he was 1-0 posting a 1.98 ERA. He also had a save in the National Championship Game. At the plate he was also impressive, posting a .409 batting average with 4 doubles, a HR and 8 RBI's.
